

Homey's Heartbeat

"...they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint" Isaiah 40:31

No. 55

For God's Glory

July 12, 2009

(1 Corinthians 13:13)

Dear friends,

This Sunday morning in church, Ogie (10 yrs. old and in Gr. 3), one of our six kids, sat in front of me beside Angie...2nd row from the front. After the choir, Angie was going to take him downstairs to be with the younger kids. It's a Fundamental Baptist church and basically all the music comes from the hymn books.

Within minutes, Ogie was pretending he was the conductor and duplicating his every move. I could see that Angie was also smiling. Not sure what the rest of the congregation thought but times like that add a little lightness to our load. He and his brother, Ruben Gerona (Gr. 4-14 yrs old), from a poor family of 12, with their "worldly ways" are needy of your prayers.

Juni and Joanne Buenaflores (13 yrs old and 1st year, 14 yrs old and 3rd year respectively) were raised by a grandmother and have little or no knowledge of parental love. I delivered Juni's forgotten sack lunch to him the other day and his teacher told me that he seemed to have no ambition whatsoever.

Cathrena Borja (14 yrs old and in 2nd year) comes from a poor, single parent family and Maricar Gulmayo (13 yrs old and in Gr. 5) is a sweet young girl of which I haven't yet learned much of her family background.

For these kids, we covet your prayers for a visit for each one by the Only One Who is able to change the hearts. We also ask for His hand of healing upon many of the Lifehouse team (mainly the kids) who are being hammered by a flu-like virus and just today, a member of Albert's family brought home a case of "sore eyes" or pink eye as it is known overseas.

Thanks for your praying and giving. May our Good Lord encourage you in your own walk with our Jehovah Jireh...remembering that the Lord has a reason for everything that falls into your path.

It's late Sunday night and I'll be getting up early to cook pancakes for everyone so good night and God bless!!!

In His precious love,

Ron